19 MANAGER JOHN DOE; THE STATE OF NEVADA ex rel, all.
20 Defendants.

21
22 The parties to this action, by their respective counsel, having agreed to the following, and 23 for good cause shown pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P 26(c)(1), IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

24 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS.

25 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action may involve production of confidential, 26 proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure may be 27 warranted pursuant to Rule 26(c)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The parties 28 acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled under law to treatment as confidential.

2. SCOPE.

All documents produced in the course of discovery, all responses to discovery requests, and all deposition testimony and exhibits and any other materials which may be subject to discovery (hereinafter collectively “Discovery Material”) shall be subject to this stipulated protective order concerning confidential information as set forth below. Any party, or any third party who produces documents in this litigation, may designate documents as Confidential but only after review of the documents by an attorney who has, in good faith, determined that the documents contain “Confidential Information,” as defined below, and pursuant to the procedure set forth below.

3. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

“Confidential Information” shall mean information meriting special protection under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and applicable case law. Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is in the public domain at the time of disclosure; (b) becomes part of the public domain through no fault of the Receiving Party; (c) the Receiving Party can show was in its rightful and lawful possession at the time of disclosure; or (d) the Receiving Party lawfully receives from a Non-party later without restriction as to disclosure.

4. OTHER DEFINITIONS.

Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, agents, and attorney(s) of record for a Party in this action (including their associates, paralegals, and support/ clerical staff).
Non-party: any individual, corporation, association, or natural person or entity other than a party.
Protected Material: any Discovery Material containing Confidential Information that is designated by a Party or Non-party as “CONFIDENTIAL,” unless the Receiving Party challenges the confidentiality designation and (a) the Court decides such material is not entitled to protection as confidential; (b) the Designating Party fails to apply the Court for an order designating the material confidential within the time period specified below; or (c) the Designating Party withdraws its confidentiality designation in writing.

1 Producing Party: a Party or Non-party that produces Discovery Material in this action.
2 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Discovery Material from a Producing Party.
3 Designating Party: a Party or Non-party that designates Discovery Material as 4 “CONFIDENTIAL”. The Party or Non-party designating information or items as Protected
5 Material bears the burden of establishing good cause for the confidentiality of all such items.
6 Challenging Party: a party that elects to initiate a challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality
7 designation.

8 5. FORM AND TIMING OF DESIGNATION.

9 Protected Material shall be so designated by the Producing Party by placing or affixing the 10 word “CONFIDENTIAL” on the document in a manner which will not interfere with the legibility
11 of the document and which will permit complete removal of the “Confidential” designation.
12 Documents shall be designated “Confidential” prior to, or contemporaneously with, the production 13 or disclosure of the documents.

14 A Designating Party must exercise restraint and make good faith efforts to limit 15 CONFIDENTIAL designations to specific materials that qualify for protection under the 16 appropriate standard. Further, a Designating Party must use good faith efforts to designate for 17 protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or communications that qualify – so that 18 other portions of the materials, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not 19 warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order. If only a portion or portions 20 of materials on a page or within a document merit protection, a Producing Party must so indicate 21 by making appropriate markings in the margins but not over text.

22 A Producing Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection
23 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material 24 it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the 25 material made available for inspection shall be deemed “Confidential.” After the inspecting Party
26 has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine 27 which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order, and, before
28 producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend on each

1 page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page
2 qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected
3 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriated markings in the margins or by redacting protected 4 portions).

5 Portions of depositions shall be designated Confidential when the deposition is taken or 6 within fourteen (14) business days after receipt of the transcript, if feasible. Such designation shall 7 be specific as to the portions to be protected. A Designating Party must exercise restraint and 8 make good faith efforts to limit “CONFIDENTIAL” designations to specific materials that qualify 9 for protection under the appropriate standards.

10 Inadvertent or unintentional production of Protected Material without prior designation as 11 “Confidential” shall not be deemed a waiver, in whole or in part, of the right to designate 12 documents as Protected Material as otherwise allowed by this Order. Further, a Party may assert 13 that disclosures or discovery material produced by another Party constitute Protected Material by 14 informing the opposing Party by following the procedures set forth herein for a Designated Party.

15 6. Protection of PROTECTED Material.

16 a. General Protections. Protected Material shall not be used or disclosed by the parties or counsel 17 for the parties or any other persons identified below (¶ 6.b.) for any purposes whatsoever other 18 than preparing for and conducting litigation in the above-entitled action (including any appeal).

19 b. Qualified Receiving Parties and Limited Third Party Disclosures. Protected Material shall 20 be held in confidence by each qualified Receiving Party to whom it is disclosed, shall be used only 21 for purposes of this action, and shall not be disclosed to any person who is not a qualified
22 recipient. All Protected Material shall be carefully maintained so as to preclude access by persons 23 who are not qualified Receiving Parties.

24 Subject to these requirements, in addition to Parties and the Court, the following 25 categories of persons may be allowed to review Protected Material pursuant to this Order after 26 executing an acknowledgment (in the form set forth at Exhibit A hereto), that he or she has read 27 and understands the terms of this Order and is bound by it:

28 (1) Any officers, directors, or designated employees of a Party deemed

- 1 necessary by counsel of record in this action to aid in the prosecution, 2 defense, or settlement of this action;
- 3 (2) Professional outside vendors for attorneys of record (such as copying 4 services and translators and interpreters),
- 5 (3) Court reporters, deposition notaries and staff;
- 6 (4) The author of any document designated as CONFIDENTIAL or the original 7 source of Confidential Information contained therein;
- 8 (5) Persons other than legal counsel who have been retained or specially 9 employed by a party as an expert witness for purposes of this lawsuit or to 10 perform investigative work or fact research;
- 11 (6) Deponents during the course of their depositions;
- 12 (7) Counsel for issuers of insurance policies under which any issuer may be 13 liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment that may be entered in these 14 proceedings or indemnify or reimburse payments or costs associated with 15 these proceedings;
- 16 (8) Any private mediator or arbitrator appointed by the Court or selected by 17 mutual agreement of the parties and the mediator or arbitrator's secretarial 18 and clerical personnel;
- 19 (9) Any other person as to whom the Producing Party has consented to disclosure in advance and 20 in writing, on notice to each Party hereto.

21 c. Control of Documents. Counsel for Parties shall take reasonable efforts to prevent 22 unauthorized disclosure of Protected Material pursuant to the terms of this Order. No copies of 23 Protected Material shall be made except by or on behalf of attorneys of record, in-house counsel or 24 the parties in this action.

25 d. Copies. Any person making copies of Protected Material shall maintain all copies within their 26 possession or the possession of those entitled to access to such information under the Protective 27 Order. All copies shall be immediately affixed with the designation "CONFIDENTIAL" if the 28 word does not already appear on the copy. All such copies shall be afforded the full protection of 1 this Order.

2 7. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE.

3 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected
4 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective 5 Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the 6 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies of the Protected Material, (c)
7 inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this 8 Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to 9 Be Bound by Stipulated Protective Order” (Exhibit A).

10 8. Filing PROTECTED Material

11 The Parties shall follow Rule 10-5 of the Local Rules of Practice for the U.S. District
12 Court of Nevada, and must file documents under seal under the Court’s electronic filing 13 procedures.

14 Further, the Parties recognize the presumption of public access inherent in judicial records
15 and that a Protective Order does not establish that documents meet the “standard for sealing set 16 forth in Rule 10-5 of the Local Rules of Practice for the U.S. District Court of Nevada and the 17 Ninth Circuit’s decisions in Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172 (9th Cir.
18 2006) and Ctr. for Auto Safety v. Chrysler Group, LLC, 809 F.3d 1092, 1097 (9th Cir. 2016), cert.
19 denied sub nom. FCA U.S. LLC v. Ctr. for Auto Safety, 137 S. Ct. 38 (2016). “A party seeking to 20 seal a judicial record then bears the burden of overcoming this strong presumption by meeting the 21 ‘compelling reasons’ standard.” Kamakana, 447 F.3d at 1178. The only exception to this rule is 22 that only good cause need be established “for sealed materials attached to a discovery motion 23 unrelated to the merits of a case.” Chrysler Group, 809 F. 3d at 1097 (citing Phillips ex rel. Estates 24 of Byrd v. Gen. Motors Corp., 307 F.3d 1206, 1213–14 (9th Cir.2002).). Further, the Court should 25 make an independent determination regarding whether documents merits sealed status, and thus 26 expressly reserves the right to do. Kamakana 447 F.3d at 1186-87.

27 In recognition of this legal standard, and the fact that the party filing Protected Material 28 may not be the party that designated it confidential (and thus, may not believe good cause exists for sealing), the Parties suggest that the procedure set forth below is followed if the sole ground for a motion to seal is that the opposing party (or non-party) has designated a document as subject to protection pursuant to this Stipulated Protective Order: The Party filing such Protected Materials may assert in the accompanying motion any reasons why the Protected Materials should not, in fact, be kept under seal and the Designating Party, who must be properly noticed, may likewise file a response asserting its position that the Protected Material merits protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and attaching a declaration supporting the assertion that the designated material meets the applicable standard..

9. Challenges to PROTECTED MATERIAL.

Any designation of Protected Material is subject to challenge. The following procedures shall apply to any such challenge:

a. Burden. The burden of proving the necessity of a “CONFIDENTIAL” designation remains with the party asserting confidentiality.

b. Notice; Opportunity to Challenge. A party who contends that Protected Material is not entitled to confidential treatment shall give written notice to the party who affixed the “CONFIDENTIAL” designation of the specific basis for the challenge. The party who so designated the documents shall have ten (10) days from service of the written notice to determine if the dispute can be resolved without judicial intervention and, if not, to move for an Order confirming the “CONFIDENTIAL” designation, and the status as Protected Material.

c. Treatment as Protected Material until Order or Withdrawal. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of documents as such, all material previously designated “CONFIDENTIAL” shall continue to be treated as Protected Material subject to the full protections of this Order until one of the following occurs: (1) the Party who claims that the documents are Protected Material withdraws such designation in writing; (2) the Party who claims that the documents are confidential fails to move timely for an Order designating the documents as confidential as set forth in paragraph 9.b. above; or (3) the Court rules that the documents are not Protected Material and/or should no longer be designated as “Confidential.”

d. No Waiver. Challenges to the confidentiality of documents may be made at any time and are 1 not waived by the failure to raise the challenge at the time of initial disclosure or designation.

2 10. DURATION; Conclusion of Litigation.

3 All provisions of this Order restricting the use of Protected Material shall continue to be 4 binding after the conclusion of the litigation unless otherwise agreed or ordered. However, the 5 dismissal of this action will terminate the jurisdiction of this Court, including over this Order.
6 Within thirty (30) days of the final termination of in the above-entitled action, which would be 7 either a final judgment on all claims or stipulation and order for dismissal with prejudice, all 8 documents and information designated as CONFIDENTIAL by a Designating Party and which has 9 not been challenged, including any copies, or documents containing information taken therefrom,
10 shall be returned to the Designating Party. In the alternative, within thirty (30) days of the final 11 termination of this case, which would be either a final judgment on all claims or stipulation and 12 order for dismissal with prejudice, all such documents, including copies, may be shredded or 13 disposed of in a manner to ensure the destruction thereof and a declaration certifying such 14 destruction or disposal provided to the Designating Party. To the extent a party has designated 15 portions of a deposition transcript as CONFIDENTIAL, the non-designating party is under no
16 obligation or duty to shred or dispose of the deposition transcript, however, the CONFIDENTIAL 17 designation will remain.

18 11. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED
19 IN OTHER LITIGATION.

20 If a Party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other litigation that would compel
21 disclosure of Protected Material designated by another Party or Non-party, the Party must so
22 notify the Designating Party, in writing (by e-mail or fax, if possible) within three (3) court days 23 after receiving the subpoena or order. Such notification must include a copy of the subpoena or 24 court order.

25 12. ORDER SUBJECT TO MODIFICATION.

26 This Order shall be subject to modification on motion of any Party or any other person 27 who may show an adequate interest in in the above-entitled action to intervene for purposes of 28 addressing the scope and terms of this Order. The Order shall not, however, be modified until the 1 Parties shall have been given notice and an opportunity to be heard on the proposed modification.

2 13. NO JUDICIAL DETERMINATION.

3 This Order is entered based on the representations and agreements of the Parties and for 4 the purpose of facilitating discovery. Nothing herein shall be construed or presented as a judicial 5 determination that any specific document or item of information designated as CONFIDENTIAL
6 by counsel is subject to protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or 7 otherwise until such time as a document-specific ruling shall have been made.

8 14. MISCELLANEOUS.

9 a. Public Health and Safety. Nothing in this Order is intended to prevent any Party from raising
10 with the Court any concern that the non-disclosure of certain Protected Material may have a 11 possible adverse effect upon the general public health or safety, or the administration or operation 12 of government or public office.

13 b. Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its 14 modification by the Court in the future.

15 c. Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Order, no Party waives 16 any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on 17 any ground not addressed in this Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any 18 ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.
